

Joel Knopp

Treasurer

Joel Knopp is a shareholder with MSL CPAs and Advisors, a public accounting firm headquartered in Orlando with offices across Florida. As a licensed CPA, Joel helps lead the firm's Governmental Practice Group and has over 25 years of experience providing accounting and auditing services to municipalities, counties, school boards, special districts, and not-for-profit organizations. Joel works directly with client management to develop strong relationships, resolve issues arising during audits, and ensure that engagements are performed in accordance with applicable professional standards and in a manner that is consistent with client goals. Joel is also a speaker at audit training sessions for FGFOA, FSFOA, FICPA, Florida Audit Forum, and MSL events.

Prior to joining MSL, Joel worked as an audit director for a CPA firm in Virginia, where he managed numerous audits of Virginia local governmental agencies and municipalities. Joel earned his B.S. Degree in Accounting from Eastern University in St. Davids, PA and is a native of Staunton, VA located in the Shenandoah Valley. In his free time, Joel loves to be with family and friends, play golf, spend time at the beach, and listen to live music. He resides in Orlando with his wife, Patricia, and dog, Mr. Magoo.
