

Kelly Nierstedt

Orlando Health

Kelly Nierstedt is president of Orlando Health Orlando Regional Medical Center and senior vice president of Orlando Health, leading one of the nation's largest hospitals with a focus on expanding care access and clinical excellence. With a nursing background and a passion for women's health, she is recognized for her leadership in healthcare innovation and advocacy for diversity and equity.